

RY X — THE ALBUM

01 Proposal

2026 Sweat Strategies. All rights reserved.
Confidential and proprietary information.

THE BRIEF, IN ONE LINE

Someone in Europe on Ry's side of the table, pushing.

Someone who works only for Ry on this record. Who holds the plan across every market, runs the ads, builds the events and reports every week.

Prepared for Red Light Management. Commercial in confidence.
2026 Sweat Strategies.

WHAT IS ALREADY IN PLACE

Who is already on it.

None of this changes. What is missing is someone in the middle of it, working for Ry — especially in Europe.

Distribution

The Orchard

The record, the ad budget, the German office.

US publicity

Shore Fire

US press, reaching into the UK titles.

Radio & club

Circa

US non-comm and specialty; building out in Europe.

Latin America

D Music

In conversation.

Brands

Firebird

The sponsor deck, due this week.

Physical

Diggers · Merch Collective

Vinyl in manufacture. D2C in place.

Content

Videos for every song

Already shot.

The gap

Europe, for Ry

The plan, the ads, the events and the chasing. That is us.

WHAT WE TAKE ON

Four things, November to March.

01

The plan

A plan for the US, Germany, the UK and Belgium, held in one place. We sit between Red Light, Orchard and the partners, and we do the chasing.

02

The ads

Tested before the budget goes on, scaled when they work, and reported on what a listener costs.

03

Events

In-stores, radio sessions and the smaller shows. We find the rooms and the sponsor.

04

Pitching

DSP and editorial through our network, when there is a reason to go.

THE CAMPAIGN

Four releases, one album

2026 Sweat Strategies.

THE SHAPE OF IT

October to April.

29 OCTOBER

Lay

Out this week. We start running ads on it tomorrow.

19 NOVEMBER

The November single

Album pre-save and vinyl pre-order open.

JANUARY

The third single

Scale up on what worked in November.

FEBRUARY

The album

12th, 19th or 25th, depending on vinyl delivery.

APRIL

The tour

Europe. Everything before it builds the audience for it.

The album date depends on when the vinyl lands, so the plan is built to move a week or two with it.

RELEASE 01 OF 04

29 October

Lay

Already moving

A quick campaign on Lay, starting tomorrow.

01

Our channels

Lay goes out on our third-party pages, to audiences that already follow this kind of music.

02

A small budget

Enough to see what a listener costs in the US, Germany, the UK and Belgium.

03

Credited

£250 plus 20% on spend, taken off the first month if the campaign goes ahead.

Prepared for Red Light Management. Commercial in confidence.

RELEASE 02 OF 04

19 November

The November single

Album pre-save and vinyl pre-order open

The launch.

Holy Water was performing well and the ads stopped before anyone noticed. This time someone is watching every day.

01

Test the song

Each section against the same visual, then a range of cuts on the one that works.

02

Scale

Cost per listener checked daily, by market. Budget moves to what is working.

03

Drive the pre-save

The single leads to the album pre-save. That is the number we track.

04

Book February

Rough Trade, Amoeba, a German store, the radio sessions. They book months out, so we ask now.

2026 Sweat Strategies.

RELEASE 04 OF 04

February

The album

LA, New York, then Europe in the same week

Release week, with Ry out and doing things.

Red Light and Orchard US run the American dates. We run Europe and keep the week joined up.

01

In-stores

Rough Trade in London and a German store through Orchard Germany.

02

Radio sessions

KCRW and KEXP in the US. We go after the European equivalents early.

03

Ads

Budget weighted around release week in every market, then kept running for the two weeks after.

04

Capture

Every event and session feeds the newsletter.

HOW

Paid media

2026 Sweat Strategies.

PAID MEDIA

What does a listener cost?

Cost per click is what Meta reports. Cost per listener is what matters. We report it weekly, per cut and per market.

01

Find the sound

Each section of the song against the same visual, to find the part people stop for.

02

Build the cuts

Up to twenty-five visuals on that section: film, the videos, Ry's own footage. Each market tested separately.

03

Two kinds of page

Ry's content on his own pages. Our content on third-party pages with an audience already there.

04

Weekly call

Push harder or hold back, decided with you from the numbers.

2026 Sweat Strategies.

EVENTS

The events he already does.

The sound baths and the small shows are the most Ry X part of the campaign. One in New York, one in Europe, a sponsor to cover it, and the right people in the room.

01

The sponsor

Firebird's deck, Orchard Germany's brands team, and our own contacts.

02

Production

We know people in Europe who put these on well.

03

Afterwards

Content for the campaign for weeks, and the names of everyone who came.

None of this asks Ry to sell anything. The newsletter is the only call to action.

THE TEAM

Who we are

Prepared for Red Light Management. Commercial in confidence.
2026 Sweat Strategies.

SWEAT STRATEGIES

Fifteen people in London.

We run paid media, product management and campaigns for artists and labels across the UK, Europe and the US. We have run campaigns for Elderbrook, Bonobo, Maribou State, Disclosure and Swedish House Mafia, and we work with Atlantic, BMG, Ninja Tune, Red Light, Live Nation and CAA.

Founder

Peter Jarrett

Runs Sweat Music Group. Twenty years in music marketing, with campaigns for Swedish House Mafia, Disclosure and Bonobo, previously at Mercury and Sony Black Butter, alongside marketing campaigns for Atlantic, BMG and Ninja Tune.

Co-founder · Paid media

Tobi Steinborn

Runs the media. The campaigns behind Elderbrook, Ninja Tune and Better Noise, and the Red Light work already live.

You get a named day-to-day lead in the first week, and Peter on everything.

REPORTING

Every Monday, without being asked.

A written report and the dashboard open all week: spend, cost per listener by market, what Spotify did, where every partner is, and what needs a decision.

You will not have to ask for a number.

Prepared for Red Light Management. Commercial in confidence.
2026 Sweat Strategies.

FROM YOUR SIDE

Five things and we are running.

01

The vinyl date

It sets the album date and the February week.

02

The money route

The ad budget sits with Orchard. We invoice them for spend.

03

Access

Meta, Spotify for Artists, the videos, the newsletter. So Lay can start tomorrow.

04

An intro to each partner

Orchard US and Germany, Shore Fire, Circa, Firebird. After that we do the chasing.

05

An hour with Ry

Before we build anything.

Prepared for Red Light Management. Commercial in confidence.
2026 Sweat Strategies.

THE ENGAGEMENT · NOVEMBER TO MARCH

Five months, two ways to pay.

MONTHLY

£5,000 a month

Five payments, £25,000, invoiced monthly from 1 November.

UP FRONT

£20,000

The same five months, the fifth on us.

Media included. No 20% on ad spend on top.

On top, at cost: the ad spend itself, from Orchard's budget; event hard costs; any software. Lay starts tomorrow at £250 plus 20% on its spend, credited against month one.

Prepared for Red Light Management. Commercial in confidence.
2026 Sweat Strategies.

Lay is out tomorrow. The launch is three weeks away.

The quick campaign on Lay runs either way. If this looks right, it goes to Steve, then an hour with Ry, and we start on 1 November.

01

Ads on Lay through our channels, from tomorrow.

02

This goes to Steve, then to Ry.

03

An hour with Ry, and the vinyl date.

04

1 November: testing starts on the November single and the February asks go out.
