EP • TWELVE MONTHS

48.9M streams on one EP.

Averaged 134K a day • 8 million listeners

1.16 million playlist adds and 656,650 saves. Six streams per listener says the audience came back rather than passing through once.

0 to 7.2M streams in 90 days.

£6K spend · 20p cost per listener

1.3 million listeners, 278,021 playlist adds and 401,579 saves in the first three months, averaging 76K streams a day. 25+ content variations tested before we scaled a penny.

CATALOGUE SINGLE, RELEASED 2015

4.3M streams in 28 days on a 2015 record.

Averaged 155K a day · up 14.1% on the month before

Eleven years old and still moving, up 14.1% on the month before. Catalogue doesn't decay on its own — it decays when nobody works it.

ALBUM · SIXTEEN WEEKS TO RELEASE

2M streams across an album campaign.

Averaged 18K a day · release week above 50K

Built over sixteen weeks from about 5,000 a day to a release-week peak above 50,000, then held at four times where it started. 545,129 listeners and 119,946 saves.

ALBUM · WORKED FROM MONTH FIVE

466K streams on a back catalogue album.

From 1,500 to 11,000 a day · four months

Released the previous October and worked from March. Eighteen thousand playlist adds and thirty-eight thousand saves, on a record that was already out.

SINGLE · FIRST MONTH

257K streams in the first month.

Peak day 19,930 · 101,943 listeners

Straight into a climb from release day. Twelve thousand playlist adds and nearly sixteen thousand saves inside thirty days.

DANCE SINGLE · FIRST THREE WEEKS

0 to 18K daily streams in 3 weeks.

243,611 streams · 140,514 listeners

A cold start on a dance record. Fifteen thousand playlist adds and twelve thousand saves inside the first three weeks.

SINGLE · FIRST THREE WEEKS

0 to 25K daily streams in 3 weeks.

Peak day 25,470 · 205,234 streams

Nothing on release day and 25K a day three weeks later. The line only bends once the spend finds the audience that responds.

CATALOGUE TRACK · SIX MONTHS

76K to 300K monthly listeners.

Six months · 12p a listener

No new release and no new recording. A back-catalogue track that was already half-working, proved out on a test budget and then scaled.

MERCH · TWO WEEKS

$68K in merch sales in two weeks.
